Item	Response
1. Respondent
Name	NYSRC Reliability Rules Subcommittee
Organization
Address
Phone & Fax numbers
Email address
2. Title of proposed rule change & PRR No.	Exceptions Review (PRR #105)
3. New rule or modification of NYSRC RR?
If a new rule is proposed, provide any relevant citation to existing standards
If a modification to an existing rule is proposed, provide NYSRC RR reference	E-M9
4. Wording of proposed rule change
5. Rationale for proposed rule change
Identify advantages	Clarifies certain aspects of the procedure and adds a new component which address requests by Transmission Owners for providing obtaining new exceptions to the Reliability Rules or and and for Transmission Owner's request for a review to remove or modify its own current exceptions. Also, removes the statement about the NYISO revising the exceptions list since the NYSRC is responsible for maintaining the exceptions list and the NYISO is expected to remove the list from its manuals and replace it with a link to the NYSRC list. Adds measurement E-M10 which provides for obtaining, modifying or removing exceptions.
Identify disadvantages	None.
6. Measurement(s)	E-M9: NYISO requests to obtain, modify or remove exceptions to the Reliability Rules shall be implemented in accordance with procedures described in NYSRC Policy 1, Procedure for Reviewing, Developing, Modifying, and Disseminating NYSRC Reliability Rules. In addition, the NYISO shall review the exceptions to the Reliability Rules granted under Policy 1, as follows: 1. The NYISO shall verify at least annually that each exception is still required or needs modification.

2. The NYISO shall review written requests made at any time by a Transmission Owner to remove or modify any of the Transmission Owner's current exceptions.
3. The NYISO shall review written requests made at any time by a Transmission Owner for obtaining new exceptions to the Reliability Rules.
4. The NYISO shall notify the NYSRC after the NYISO has approved a proposed new exception or has determined that an current exception is no longer required or needs modification. In accordance with Policy 1 procedures, the NYISO shall document the reasons for such determination, including an assessment that there would be no adverse impact to reliability upon issuance of the new exception or removal or modification of the existing exception.
