3.0 NYSRC 2021 Reliability Compliance Monitoring Program

3.1 2021 Compliance Program Update

The committee reviewed the 2021 compliance program. The program is up to date with the exception of the November & December Operating Reports [D.1: R10]. Roger Clayton noted that the committee would deal with the November report in the next item. The December report will be reviewed at the February meeting.

3.2 November 2021 Operating Report [D.1: R10]

The NYISO submitted its November 2021 Operations Report to RCMS certifying full compliance with [D.1: R10]. There were no comments on the Report.

A motion to find the NYISO in Full Compliance with this requirement [D.1: R10] for November 2021 was made by Brian Shanahan and seconded by Brian Gordon. RCMS found the NYISO to be in full compliance.

3.3 RCMS Annual Report: Schedule

Al Adamson reviewed the RCMS final report schedule with the committee. He noted that he would like the NYISO to present their view of potential reliability issues over a “long term period” as part of this report process. Mr. Clayton asked to define what constituted a “long term period”. Mr. Adamson suggested that the “long-term period” would reach out to 2040. The NYISO’s Jim Grant then noted that the NYISO’s current Comprehensive Reliability Plan (CRP) did look out to 2030. Mr. Adamson then noted that he was specifically concerned about the impact of renewables on system reliability.

4.1 Draft NYSRC 2022 Compliance Program - For Review and Comment

Mr. Adamson reviewed the 2022 Compliance Program schedule, noting that the NYISO Staff had reviewed the dates and provisionally approved them. Mr. Grant stated that Mark Capano is usually responsible for reviewing these dates, but that Mr. Capano was unavailable for the current meeting. Mr. Grant stated that he thought the dates would work, but that he did not want to finalize and submit them to the Executive Committee until Mr. Capano had reviewed them formally.

Action Item 261-1. The NYISO will formally review the 2022 Compliance Schedule and reply to Al Adamson before the February meeting.

The committee will approve the Compliance Schedule at the February meeting after the NYISO reports back to Mr. Adamson. Mr. Adamson will then submit it to the NYSRC Executive Committee.
